The purpose of this document is to describe the Return to Play guidelines for the sport of baseball in the province of Manitoba. These guidelines will be provided to all organized baseball associations through membership at Baseball Manitoba and have been prepared through a collaboration of community volunteers and staff and further reviewed and ratified by Baseball Manitoba's Management Committee and its member organizations on May 22, 2020. It is our desire to have approval by The Province of Manitoba as soon as possible.

These Return to Play guidelines are required to be in place and executed in full to start up any organized baseball activities by order of The Province of Manitoba and must be followed as outlined. Noncompliance can lead to removal of facility access through the municipality in which you offer baseball programming, by law fines or even provincial health officer order to cease activity.

This work came from Baseball Manitoba, in collaboration with other Provincial Sport Governing Bodies. The working group was assembled in April and was supervised by Baseball Manitoba Executive Director, Jason Miller and included Management Committee Members Tony Siemens (President), Alex Grenier (VP-Competition) and Louis Cote (VP - Coaching). Finally, multiple personnel from baseball associations across the Province were included in the process to prepare guidelines that could be submitted for approval that would allow our athletes and clubs to resume baseball in some form.

Required content included safety and personal hygiene measures to be incorporated for all participants during the COVID 19 pandemic, possible adaptations to standard practices to allow for the restrictions in place at any time through an Order of the Provincial Health Officer and general guidelines that may not necessarily fall under any of the above categories.
